Program Director for Community Standards and Safety Education

Residential Life, University Housing, University of Illinois

Applications are now being accepted for the Program Director for Community Standards and Safety Education position within University Housing at the University of Illinois.

The Program Director will work closely with the Assistant Director of Residential Life for Community Standards and Life Safety to coordinate all community standards investigations and implement the dual investigator model for all cases involving University Housing students (complainants and/or respondents). This position will assist in investigating Private Certified Housing cases. In addition, this position will serve as a University level hearing officer, investigate sexual misconduct cases in accordance with the University’s Title IX process, assist in the coordination of student judicial processes for the Department of Residential Life and Family and Graduate Housing, and serve as a member of the Residential Life Central Staff Team.

For additional details and full consideration, create your candidate profile at http://jobs.illinois.edu and upload pdf versions of a cover letter of application, a resume, and the names, addresses, email addresses, and phone numbers of three professional references by November 30, 2017. Screening interviews may begin before that date, but all applications received by that date will receive full consideration.

We encourage all applicants to learn more about the Department, Housing, the University of Illinois, and the Urbana-Champaign community by visiting our candidate website: http://www.housing.illinois.edu/Staff/Employment/

The University of Illinois conducts criminal background checks on all job candidates upon acceptance of a contingent offer.

The U of I is an EEO Employer/Vet/Disabled www.inclusiveillinois.illinois.edu.